NIFTY FUTURES

"Nifty50 continued its positive move but traded, through out the day, in a narrow rang of around 60 points before signing off the session with a small bullish candle which can be a cause for concern about next day's move. Hence, it looks inevitable for this index to sustain above 11,000 levels on closing basis for couple of sessions going forward

Bank Nifty closed 71.60 points higher at 27,625.65 and formed a Doji candle on daily scale as it remained dull after the strong momentum of last session

"It closed near to its opening zones but dips was bought which indicates overall positive bias in this sector," adding now it has to continue to hold above 27,350 zone to witness an up move towards 27,750 then 28,000 zones while on the downside support exists at 27,150 then 27,000 zones.
