NIFTY FUTURES

Market continued to trade in a listless fashion and remained range bound before signing off the session with a Doji kind of indecisive formation for the third day in a row. Interestingly, weekly charts also depicted an indecisive formation which resembles a Hanging Man for the second consecutive week after maintaining a narrow range of 134 points in the current truncated week "Index has got stuck in between 11,550 to 11,800/11,850 zones from last twenty-two trading sessions where dips are being bought while follow up is missing at higher zones. Now till it holds above 11,666 zones it could witness an up move towards 11,800 then 11,850 levels while on the downside major support is seen at 11,550 levels."

BANK NIFTY FUTURES

Bank Nifty opened positive and gradually extend its gains towards 30,100 zones but failed to the same and drifted towards 29,950 level. It formed a small Bullish Candle on a daily scale while Doji Candle on a weekly scale. Now till it holds above 29,750 levels it could extend its gains towards 30,250 zone while on the downside major support is seen at 29,500 zones.
